

All boarders at the age of 17 are taught to drive. When fully qualified and after some experience they are allowed to drive the school motor transport.

Practical mechanical work such as film projection, maintenance of oil-heating plant and grass cutting provides interest and useful experience for some.