

Staff Notes

J. B. Hollingworth is joining the Staff full time, next term, as a teacher for the junior School. Mr. M. White and Mr. J. F. C. O'Grady are leaving this term to take appointments elsewhere.

MR. MICHAEL WHITE (1959-64)

It is with regret that we see Mr. White leave. He has helped many, over the past five years, through their examinations as well as being very alive in general school activities. He taught English Language, Literature and Art with great zest and for the past three years has been form master of Preceptors. Being very keen on drama, he formed a Dramatic Society almost as soon as he came. Amongst his productions were "Everyman", which formed part of the Hunstanton Festival in 1962. Also, two years running he organised a holiday for some of the seniors to his native Stratford-upon-Avon. There they appreciated some of Shakespeare's plays at their source.

As well as being active in the School his absence will be felt locally. He was a keen organiser, especially of Christian ventures, and also ran the Ingoldisthorpe Youth Club.

So after five years in the School we wish him future luck and happiness.

MR. J. F. C. O'GRADY, M.A.(1962-64)

We say farewell to Mr. O'Grady this term, and wish him good luck in the future. There is something to be gained by meeting representatives of the larger world, and we feel we have met one of them in this case. We have listened to interesting accounts of life and letters in Ireland, Spain and South America, and are the wiser for it.

Mr. O'Grady taught Latin, Greek, Spanish and English to the great delight of his pupils. We wish him luck.

Gifts to the School

A Silver Inter-house Football Cup :	The father of one of the boys.
An Illuminated Globe :	A former head boy.
A Contribution to the Library :	A former head boy.
Free Printing of the "Mitre" :	A parent of an old-boy.
Many hours of her time laboriously typing the draft copy of the magazine :	The mother of the Editor.

Senior Prefects

Sixth Form

K. Ashrafzaden (Head boy, School Banker, Captain of Hockey and the Blue House).
M. D. B. Coats (Captain of Football and Green House, Games Secretary).
P. C. Coe.
S. W. Lee (Headgirl).

5A

D. R. Bain (House Prefect, Editor of the "Mitre").
C. L. Taylor (Assistant Editor of the "Mitre", Captain of Yellow House).
R. A. Nairn (Cadet Sergeant, Head of Film Team and Transport).
M. J. Owens (Head Day boy, Captain of Tennis).
J. A. Gunn.
S. P. R. C. St. J. Hyde.
E. L. Dunn (Captain of Cricket).

5B

J. M. Dring (Sacriston).